

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

As you know, HB 410 was on the docket for vote by the full House of Representatives today. Unfortunately, this did not happen. The House hears bills by committee, in alphabetical order. HB 410 is coming out of ED&A and they only made it through Commerce today. This is only a delay. We anticipate that this bill will come to the floor next Wednesday, 1/13/10. We are still very optimistic.

Thank you to all of you who called your legislators and advocated for this very important piece of legislation. For those of you who have not made all of your phone calls yet, you have another week.

I will keep you posted on what happens next.

Jacqui
