

THE NH TRAINING INSTITUTE ON ADDICTIVE DISORDERS

Presents:

WHAT IS A RECOVERY COACH?

with Jim Wuelfing, CARC

1 HOUR WEBINAR TRAINING

PRESENTATION: Recovery coaching is being offered as a recovery support service around the country in a number of different settings. This webinar will introduce participants to recovery coaching by defining the practice, describing the roles of a coach and differentiating between recovery coaches, counselors and sponsors. Recovery coach settings and practices across the country will be discussed. Participants will be able to:

- Describe recovery coaching
- List the three primary functions of a recovery coach
- Discuss the differences between a counselor, a coach, and a sponsor

PRESENTER: Jim Wuelfing, CARC, is the owner of the New England Center, a company dedicated to quality training and technical assistance services. Aside from being a national leader in recovery coaching, facilitation of the development of recovery community organizations and in the field of prevention of problem gambling, Jim has many specialties including strategic planning, cultural competency, peer education, community organizing, spiritual growth, and curriculum development. In a consultant capacity, Jim serves as the Director of the Recovery Coach Academy for CCAR (Connecticut Community for Addiction Recovery) and as the Prevention and Recovery Consultant for the Massachusetts Council on Compulsive Gambling where he directs the prevention and recovery of problem gambling throughout the Commonwealth. Jim has worked for nearly two decades in helping states and communities develop recovery community organizations and recovery-oriented systems of care. He has served as a lead facilitator at several National Policy Academies including the Policy Academies on Chronic Homelessness, Family Homelessness and Co-Occurring Disorders. He has received numerous awards including the Inaugural Excellence in Prevention Award from the National Council on Problem Gambling, Lifetime Achievement Award from the Massachusetts Association of School Committees for his work in support of children and public education and was further honored by the National Council when in 2011 the award was named after him – the Wuelfing Prevention Award.
